Message from Principal's Desk

Patidarrang College was established with the help of some well wishers of the area on 31st of August in the year 1989 with a very few students and a small group of faculty members. Now the total strength of students of Patidarrang College is approximately 1200. Our college has been provincialised in the year 2013.

The members of our teaching faculty are the best that can be found in the area in terms of their dedication and committments to the students. They mentor the students and help them to perform their best. They are caring, understanding affirming and encouraging. But they also challenge them at the same time so that the best in them can be manifested. Our faculty place teaching as their highest priority and personal attention is the rule hereand not the exception. As a result our students many of whom join the college as an average students go out of the college as confident leaders, well prepared for life with the holistic education of heart and mind.

I expect our passed out students as the best of the best citizen of India and looking forward their contributions to our country in all aspects.

I wish all success to all of our students in their life.
